FFA WEEK STRIKES AGAIN

By: Miranda Romoser

In observation of National FFA week Feb. 15-22, Keota FFA students came in early on Wednesday morning to prepare for the FFA staff appreciation breakfast. All the FFA members participated by serving the staff and cooking the food.

On Thursday it was Tractor Day, where the FFA members brought in their tractors for the Elementary kids to take a look at. After lunch, the FFA members who drove tractors got to drive down Main Street and show off their tractors with pride for FFA week.

On Friday, the Reading Relay took place. This is where the FFA students go to the Elementary and read to the classes.

Overall, it was a success. When asked how this week went, Mallory Ladehoff stated, "This week went well." Nate Sieren commented, "I like how we got to drive the tractors down Main Street this year and the Reading Relay was fun."
