

The Eagle's Wing

Keota Jr./Sr. High School Student Newspaper

KEOTA HEADS TO THE WELLS

At the Pep Rally on Sun., March 9, Principal Seid thanked the community for coming and supporting the boys.

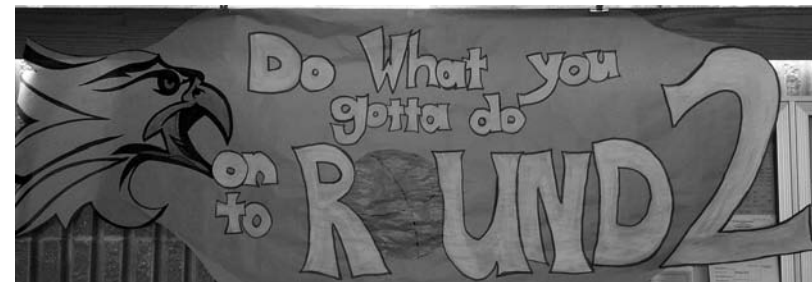

Jenny Hobbs read a poem at the Pep Rally on Sun., March 9 that Kathleen Brinning wrote for the team. Kathleen also wrote a poem for the State Tournament team 25 years ago, and she carried on the tradition by writing a poem dedicated to this year's team.

Keota held a Pep Rally on Sun., March 9 to send off the KHS Boys Basketball team to the State Tournament. Above, Mr. Stout talks about how proud he is of the boys and their accomplishments.

The senior dads spoke at the Pep Rally about the boys growing up and how proud they are of them. During his speech, Larry Hultman jerked some tears by saying, "After this week, it'll be just memories."

KHS showed off their spirit with this poster hanging in the Senior Lounge following Monday's win. This poster was made by KHS Cheer Sponsor, Jenni Swanson.

The JV players supported the boys on Monday by sitting on the floor behind the bench at Wells Fargo. Pictured are Avery Conrad, Ryan Chalupa, Cole Stout, Jacob Uphold, Jacob Wickenkamp, and Manager Cara Hahn.

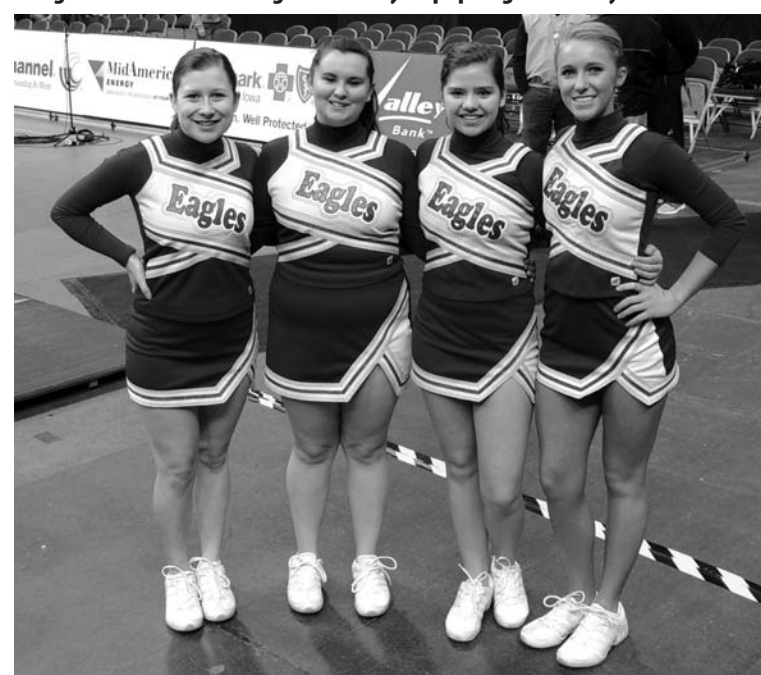

The girls basketball team gave the boys a pep bag at Sunday's send-off.

Dan Huber, a.k.a "Bear," was recognized as Keota's # 1 Hometown Fan before the start of Monday's Quarterfinal game at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines.

The KHS boys warm up for their first State Tournament game against Easton Valley on Monday, March 10.

The KHS cheerleaders did a great job of cheering and getting the crowd excited at the Quarterfinal game on Monday. Pictured are Brittany Baumert, Desi Hesseltine, Kayla Baker, and Mallory Ladehoff.

The boys huddled up to plan their winning strategy before the Easton Valley game in Des Moines on Mon., March 10..

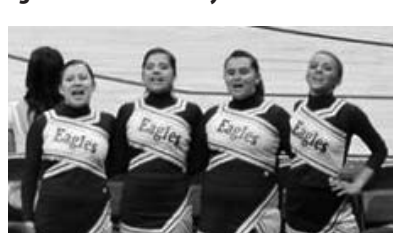

Head coach Dan Stout talks to the boys during a timeout at the Mon., March 10 Quarterfinal victory at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines.

Isaiah Hahn shoots a free throw at the State Quarterfinal game in Des Moines against Easton Valley.

The KHS student section was all fired up for the big game at the Wells on Mon., March 10.

The KHS cheerleaders are doing the "Marching" cheer during a time out at the game against Easton Valley.

Seniors Bryanna Hammes and Katrina Weber are ready to cheer on the Eagles.

The boys celebrated their big win over Easton Valley on Monday. With a final score of 56-47, they moved on to the Semi-Finals on Thursday and were guaranteed to play a third game on Friday.

EAGLE'S WING STAFF

Emily Baetsle, Maggie Baker, Erin Chalupa, Desi Hesseltine, Grant Hill, Justin Hultman, Sierra Lyle, Miranda Romoser, Madison Sheetz, Maitland Sieren, Adviser: Angela Conrad

This page was composed and designed by Keota High School students. The Keota Eagle is not responsible for the makeup or editorial content expressed.

Photo by LeeAnn Baumert