JAZMYN HOLDERNESS: THE FLUTE PLAYER

family tradition is how every single Sunday they have brunch together. She admires her mother more than anyone in the world because "she is the strongest person I know and she has gone through

When Jazmyn was a child, she used to picture herself as a teacher. Her plans have not changed very much because she still plans to go to college and get a degree in special education. She wants to work with kids who have never been given a second chance. In ten years, she hopes to have a job she loves and be married with a kid or two. Her lovable qualities will help her achieve these goals. Jazmyn also hopes to go to all 50 states, travel to Ireland, and try out for American Idol.

and choir will be huge staples in her future. She has enjoyed her music classes the most because she describes it as "her thing." It is the subject she has always understood. Her Kirkwood Career Academy classes and English classes have helped her prepare for college the most. Jazmyn will miss her classmates, homecoming, and her involvement in music the most when she leaves Keota. She describes herself using adjectives like dependable, strong, and caring. When Jazmyn graduates, she thinks people will remember her as the "Flute Player" and she hopes people will think of her as someone to look up to. When asked for advice for future KHS seniors, Jazmyn replied, "Just enjoy your last year. Don't rush it; enjoy being a kid."

RIDE OF THE WEEK

BY MIRANDA ROMOSER

Avery Conrad has been rolling around since September in a White 2000 Ford Expedition. Avery's Expedition is an Eddie Bauer Edition. He likes this car a lot because "it has a lot of space and you can pull stuff with it." He also enjoys being able to use his car to go hunting and farming. He purchased this car from the Imhoff family for $3,800. It has a 5.4 liter engine and has many custom features, like heated seats, sunroof, leather interior, heated mirrors, and custom presets. Some of his radio presets consist of 98.1, 99.7, 102.9, and 104.3. The top speed that his car gets is 110 miles per hour. He gets 13.4 miles per gallon. In addition to the many features that his car has, he also has the capability to fit up to seven people in it. The longest road trip he has even taken was when he pull their boat to Lake Red Rock.

Now it's time for you to decide: Is Avery's Expedition worth being our Ride of the Week?
