COWBOY PROM

BY MIRANDA ROMOSER

On March 21st, Marty Baker got a unique opportunity to attend "Cowboy Prom" in Marshalltown, Iowa. As many of you know, Marty travels all over Iowa and Missouri competing in rodeos. His date was a friend from Madrid, Iowa that he met at a high school rodeo.

The Cowboy Prom wasn't all that different from Keota's Prom, as Marty got to participate in a Grand March, a fancy dinner, a dance, and a hypnotist. However, there were a few more cowboy hats and cowboy boots to be seen at this particular prom.

All in all, Marty said he had a blast attending the Cowboy Prom, and he was glad he got to experience it.

HANNAH IS HOPPING INTO SUCCESS

BY BAILEY BEINHART

Hannah Louise Hopp, known as Hoppy at KHS, was born on March 7, 1997. Hannah was brought into the world by Suzi and Allen Hopp. She has two sisters, Shawna Haines and Ashley Stull. She also has a brother-in-law, Chad Stull. When Hannah was younger, she imagined herself as a singer. An accomplishment she is very proud of is when she tried out for American Idol. Hannah's favorite family vacation was when she went to Tennessee with her parents, sister, and her sister's children. Hannah admires her parents because they are funny and support any dream she wants to pursue.

After Hannah graduates, she is planning on going to Capri College to become a hair/makeup stylist. Hannah also wants to be a singer. She wants to do these things because she is good at them. She even has her own makeup room at home. In ten years, Hannah sees herself as a successful salon owner and a singer. She feels that her talents and artistic abilities will get her there.

Three things Hannah wants to accomplish in her lifetime are to make a difference in the world, have a family of her own, and live a long, happy life. Hannah's pet peeves are when people are mean or rude. Her duties at home include being respectful and doing household chores. She feels she has learned to be responsible from these chores.

Hannah describes Keota High School as "a very good school with kind teachers, staff, and students." Her favorite high school memory is when her art project got put into the SICL art show. Hannah will miss her friends and teachers most when she is gone.

A few classes and teachers Hannah has enjoyed are science, because "Hobbs is the bomb digity," art, because Ms. Miller has made her a better artist, and Mr. Snakenberg, because "he's an awesome teacher." Also she has enjoyed Mrs. Wolf's classes this year, because "she is a lovely person and an excellent teacher." The class that has prepared Hannah the most for life is art, because she wants to be a hair/makeup artist. Overall, she feels all her classes have helped her and that KHS has given her the tools she needs to be successful. She said KHS has made her a better student and has made her smarter.

Hannah says that once she leaves KHS, she hopes people will remember her as a nice person who was never mean, a hard worker, and a good singer. Three words she would use to describe herself are artistic, nice, and respectful. Her advice for future seniors is to always be kind and respectful, and enjoy life and live it to the fullest.

SLOAN IS SOARING TO HIS FUTURE

BY MAITLAND SIEREN

BY MAITLAND SIEREN

Sloan Ryan Ott was born on November 28, 1996. Welcoming him with open arms were his parents, Ryan Ott and the late Sonia Severt. Sloan also has four younger siblings, Delilah, Sierra, Haven, and Rex.

Young Sloan imagined himself as a police officer when he grew up. He admires his grandparents the most, because they are very strong and caring. An accomplishment Sloan is proud of is performing at the All State Speech Festival.

Throughout high school, Sloan has been involved in EagleRock!, drama/musicals, speech, chorus, band, basketball, Model U.N., YELL, and KC STAAR. Sloan has enjoyed speech the most, because he has learned a lot about himself and loves the directors, Mike McNurlen and Gina Bennett.

After high school, Sloan is attending Iowa Central Community College and majoring in Criminal Justice. He would like to become a Parole Officer or Detective. He chose this career because he enjoys helping people.

In ten years, Sloan sees himself graduated from college, starting his career, and beginning a family. Qualities that will certainly help Sloan get to his ten-year goals are his determination, interest, and the fact that he is very outgoing. Three things Sloan wants to accomplish in his lifetime are to have a happy family, get his children through college, and travel the world.

Sloan's favorite high school memory is going to Florida for the EagleRock! trip his freshman year. He would describe KHS as helpful and caring, because "the teachers really connect with the students." When Sloan leaves KHS, the thing he will miss most are his classmates.

Sloan says he has enjoyed his time at KHS, because it feels like home to him. If he could pick a class that has prepared him the most for college, he would choose any of Mr. Snakenberg's classes, because they are enjoyable and taught him how to take notes for college.

When Sloan is not busy and has free time, he enjoys reading a good comic book, listening to music, and watching movies.

When he graduates from KHS, Sloan hopes to be remembered as funny, a good actor, and caring. Sloan's advice for future graduating seniors is: "Get along with your classmates, because you might regret it when they're gone. Also, be involved as much as you can!"

KHS HOSTS MOCK CRASH TO RAISE AWARENESS

BY MADISON SIEREN

April is Distracted Driving Awareness Month. On Tues., April 14, Mid-Prairie students and teachers came to Keota High School for a Distracted Driving Simulation.

This simulation was presented by the Keokuk County Ambulance, the Keota and Sigourney Fire Departments, Keota EMS, Keota Police Department, Keokuk County Sheriff's Department, Powell Funeral Home, and University of Iowa Air Care services. The students from Keota and Mid-Prairie got to experience a real life simulation of the consequences of a distracted driving accident.

It started out with a distracted driver hitting another car. There were two people in each car. One person died instantly. One was taken by ambulance and later died. Another was transferred to the University of Iowa by Air Care. The distracted driver walked away with no injuries, but was charged with five different charges.

They then proceeded to have a funeral in the Keota High School gym for Callie Greiner, one of the people who died in the mock accident. Callie's dad spoke at the funeral and Luke Greiner, her brother, also spoke and was a part of carrying the casket.

Mr. Carlson stated, "I hope by taking some time out of the students' day that they are able to have a positive impact on the decisions they make when getting behind the wheel of a vehicle."

The University of Iowa Air Care flies into the scene.

Keota and Sigourney Fire Departments cut the top of the car off to get the mock victim out (played by Cole Stout) safely.

Cole Stout gets transported to the University of Iowa Air Care helicopter.

Mock victim, Montana Hart, is being transferred into a body bag.
