JUNK OR JEWEL

By JD STOUT

This week's Junk or Jewel is Cooper Sieren's 2015 Dodge Ram 1500 Quad Cab. Cooper very recently became the proud owner of this beauty. He recently purchased the vehicle from a company in Utah on Dec. 15. He figured that the cost of driving such a beast on the road would be fairly high, given that he had to fork up $12,400 for it. It was all worth it for Cooper. The truck came with tire pressure sensors. It has a 5.7 engine and 116,000 miles on it.

Cooper's white Dodge gets nearly 18 miles to the gallon. The truck can fit up to six people, and Cooper likes to cruise around with his friends listening to his favorite radio stations: 94.1, 100.7, 101.5, and 100.3. His favorite part about his truck is that it is a very reliable vehicle and has eight gears. Even though it has eight gears, Cooper has never tested out its top speed.

When asked what the name of his car is Cooper replied, "I would never name an inanimate object." He has not experienced a bad event or had any bad memories with this truck so far. "All memories are good memories," Cooper said. He has yet to take his truck on any road trips, and he mostly just travels to school. The people that ride with Cooper the most are Sam Menke, Bryce Greiner, Joe Swanstrom, and Riley Hahn, because they all go to the Academy in Sigourney. So now it is your turn to decide. Do you think Cooper's 2015 Dodge Ram 1500 is junk or a jewel?

Music groups attend play

By JOE SWANSTROM

On December 6 Mrs. Edwards and a number of students attended an Indian Hills play on the Ottumwa campus. The play was put on in the St. John's auditorium by Indian Hills students. Any students involved in drama, music, or Eaglerock were able to attend the play. The play was "Coney Island Christmas." It lasted two hours with an intermission. The play was all about immigrants coming to the U.S. during the holidays. Students said the play was very touching and comical. It was a great chance for students to experience the arts.
