Positive Behavior Intervention and Supports (PBIS):

When you listen to people talking about the school, you might hear terms like PBIS and SOARR. These are acronyms used at the school to describe our positive behavior management system. S.O.A.R.R. stands for Safe, Organized, Achieving, Respectful, and Responsible. When students go above and beyond demonstrating S.O.A.R.R. characteristics, staff give them a S.O.A.R.R. ticket for recognition. Students' names are then drawn for weekly and monthly awards.

In order to promote social distancing, our school had a virtual assembly instead of having it in the gym with everyone together. During the virtual assembly, all homerooms got on Zoom to watch and participate in the assembly. 6th grade students Porter Cave and Ayden Gallindo explained to all the students what S.O.A.R.R. means and gave examples. Then the 5th grade classrooms played 60 Seconds to S.O.A.R.R. by trying to be a smart cookie. Students had 60 seconds to get an Oreo cookie from their forehead to their mouths without using their hands. Fun was had by all.
