JUNK OR JEWEL

BY AVERY CONRAD

This week's Junk or Jewel goes to Jacob Wickenkamp and his car, "Michelle." Jacob drives a speed grey 2001 Mazda 626 LX with one previous owner. Jacob says he bought this car about two summers ago and paid exactly $2,000 for it. This is his first car and it averages about 20 MPG. Jacob says that he listens to a lot of different music in his car, ranging from rock to pop and even a little country. When asked if his car has any special abilities, he stated that it has air vents that swing back and forth to better improve airflow in the car. He says that the max speed of this car is approximately 117 mph. He travels often with Ben Horras, and Jacob says that he has taken only a couple of road trips in his car. Jacob says that he travels most to Des Moines and school. He has no bad memories, but he says that he doesn't really like this car anymore because it's getting pretty old and it's about time to get a new one. Now it's time for you to decide, is Jacob's car Michelle junk, or a jewel?

Cortney Ann Hyman was born on May 28, 1998, to Dave and Michelle Hyman. She has two brothers, Matthew and Branden. Growing up, Cortney's favorite childhood memory was Ranger riding with friends and family during the summer. She also enjoyed vacationing in Alabama with family and friends. What Cortney admires the most about her parents is the fact that they can put up with her every day. Cortney is involved in basketball, volleyball, softball, FFA, speech, 4-H and D.A.R.E. Volleyball is her favorite, because her coach and teammates are enjoyable.

When she was younger, Cortney wanted to be a photographer when she grew up. Once Cortney graduates from KHS in May, she plans on majoring in Supply Chain Management in the College of Business at Iowa State University. When Cortney was asked where she sees herself in ten years, she replied "With a family and a good job, hopefully somewhere south." Qualities that Cortney believes will help her reach her goals are that she's easy going, yet she is a very hard worker, honest, and easy to get along with. Three things Cortney wants to accomplish in her lifetime are to have a big house, a cute dog, and to be happy.

While in high school, Cortney's favorite memory was going on a trip with Nate, Ryan and Isaiah to Ty's Greenhouse in Wever, Iowa to buy FFA plants. In her future, Cortney will look back fondly at all the Ag teachers and Ag classes that she has had in her four years at Keota. Cortney enjoyed her Horticulture class her junior year the most, because they had good times in the greenhouse. The class Cortney feels has prepared her the most for life is Foods. She said they learned how to cook and how to tell flour and powdered sugar apart.

In one word Cortney describes herself as sarcastic, but she hopes to be remembered as approachable, fun, and easy going. The advice that she gives to future KHS seniors is this: "It's a lot easier to get A's in high school than you think, and it will definitely be worth it in the long run."

We wish Cortney the best of luck in her future.

KHS ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY JACE UPHOLD

This week's Athlete of the Week is Avery Conrad. Avery is a Junior this year and starts at the post. Avery is looking forward to working hard and giving it his all every game and winning as many games as possible. Avery is trying to improve on his dribbling this season. Avery's ultimate achievement would be to make an appearance at the state tournament. The best part about the sport for Avery is the fast pace of the game, because it never gets boring.

Joe Swanstrom is participating in SK wrestling this year. His ultimate achievement for wrestling would be to win all his matches. What he likes most about this sport is "the fun you are able to have while also participating." He says the funniest moments during the wrestling season have been "when kids fall on their faces." Joe is also looking forward to starting up the track season pretty soon.
