BLAST FROM THE PAST

BY MALLORY WOLTERING

HOW WILL SENIORS RESPOND THE SECOND TIME AROUND?

Each week, we ask a Senior the same question they were asked for the Question of the Week when they were in 7th grade. Let's see how their responses have changed over the years...

Raigan Sprouse

Q: What is your biggest pet peeve?

7th A: "When people step on the back of your heels when you are walking."

12th: "When people invade my personal space."

JUNK OR JEWEL

BY JACOB WICKENKAMP

This week's Junk or Jewel is Baylei McClelland's 2006 Mazda 3. It is a violet color, and it gets 38 miles per gallon. The previous owner of the car was Baylei's mom, whom she got it from last summer. Her presets are 99.7 and 102.9, and a specialty is that it has a sunroof. Baylei really likes that her car is nice and small. It can fit five people comfortably, and the name of her car is Penelope.

Some of Baylei's favorite memories with Penelope include going to Iowa City with friends. Most of the time, Baylei can be seen in this car traveling to work and to school, with her brother as her main passenger.

Now it's time for you to decide if this week's car is a Junk or Jewel.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT: ELISE SWANSTROM

BY KYLEA TINNES

Elise Hoyt Swanstrom was born on July 2, 1999, to Michelle and Jay Swanstrom. Elise is the middle child. She has an older sister, Emily, and a younger brother, Joe. When Elise was asked what she admired most about her family, she was quick to respond, "Their passion for their work." Elise has had many great family memories, vacations, and traditions, but her favorite vacation was going to Mexico over Christmas break, because the weather was so nice!

When Elise was younger, she always hoped of becoming Wonder Woman. Even though Elise is a very unique and passionate girl, she realizes now that being Wonder Woman may be a little unrealistic. She now plans to attend the University of Iowa and major in Molecular Biology. She hopes to use this degree to go on to medical school someday. As of right now, she is thinking she'd like to be an anesthesiologist when all is said and done.

While she is planning for her future, she would also like to be remembered here at KHS. She hopes to be remembered as a "hurricane of a girl" who was passionate about the things she has done.

While attending KHS, Elise has been involved in many different activities, which include cheerleading, speech, plays, musicals, and golf. Out of all her extra-curricular activities, her favorite one has been speech. Her favorite memory is when she and her best friend Caroline were in an Improv group together. Elise says, "Caroline always made it a hoot."

When asked what she will miss most about attending KHS, Elise said "being able to sit down and talk with the teachers." The class that Elise thinks has prepared her the most for life has been Geometry, because she realized that sometimes not everything will make sense, so you just have to fake it.

Elise's advice to future KHS students is "Explore the world and yourself, and leave the people who judge you in the dust." When fellow classmate, Bianca Cardona, was asked what she will miss most about Elise after high school, she said, "I'm going to miss her ability to be witty, smart, and weird at the same time, and completely make my day." With that being said, we all hope Elise becomes everything she has ever wanted in the next chapter of her life!

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY BERGEN DALTON

This week's Athlete of the Week is sophomore Trey Carlson. This season he is playing JV basketball. Trey plays all positions on the court. When I asked Trey what he is looking forward to this season he said, "I am looking forward to getting the ball passed to me. Just kidding, that doesn't happen." This season Trey wants to improve on shooting and rebounding. He also hopes the team can do even better than last year.

This season the team has a motto that was inspired by their coach, Larry Lyle. One time Larry told the team they were not getting enough boards, so the team came up with the motto, "Got boards?" The JV team refers to rebounding as getting boards. Trey says his season is going well and that he likes his team, coach, and especially "getting boards." We wish Trey the best of luck on the rest of his season.

SPEECH HOME PRESENTATIONS

Large-group speech kids and directors, Michael McNurlen and Gina Bennett, kicked off the season with the annual Home Presentations on Wednesday, Jan. 18. This event is free will donation and intended to prepare Large Group speech participants for future contests, along with giving family and friends a chance to watch the acts.

Performing groups included Choral Reading (JV and Varsity), Readers Theater, Ensemble, and Group Improv. Eight of nine groups received a Division 1 rating at the District level and moved on to compete at State Speech at Cedar Rapids Washington on Saturday, Feb. 4.

Congratulations to all the speech participants on a job well done!

JUNIOR HIGH ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY ERIN CHALUPA

This week's Junior High Athlete of the Week is Max Johnson. Max is #10 on the junior high boys' basketball court, but he is #1 in the hearts of many Eagle fans. So far, Max has had a very successful season. This season, Max was striving to improve his shot form to get closer to his ultimate goal of getting a double-double. Max's favorite thing about playing basketball is shooting three-pointers. What Max is looking forward to most this year is playing in tournaments with his friends. Catch the Keota junior high boys' basketball wing player, Max Johnson, before the season is over!

SENIOR SHOP PROJECTS ARE TAKING SHAPE

BY ANTHONY CAMPBELL

This year in Senior Ag there are seven seniors, including Avery Conrad, Anthony Campbell, Erin Chalupa, Cole Stout, Jace Uphold, Jason Ree, and Raigan Sprouse. Each student has three projects due by the end of the semester. One of the projects is to find something in the school that needs to be fixed or repaired or something that a teacher would like them to make. The second project is a personal project and the student gets to decide what they want to make. The third and final project will be to make something to sell at the Keota FFA Banquet.

Anthony and Jason are working on table tops for Ms. Hobbs for the science room. Erin is making a table for Mrs. Parra, who is very excited for it. Raigan is making a cabinet with shelves and a drawer for the Mrs. Sprouse's class. Cole is working on repairing an elliptical machine for the weight room. Avery is building a bookshelf for Mrs. Wolf. Jace is building a cupboard for Mrs. Amelon.

The Ag teacher, Mrs. Amelon, is helping hand if anyone needs assistance with their projects. All of the seniors are really excited to do these projects.
