

THE EAGLE'S WING

Keota Jr./Sr. High School Student Newspaper

Issue No. 9

NOTE TO READERS

by Angela Conrad, The Eagle's Wing Adviser

The Eagle's Wing staff made a tremendous error in judgment this week, and thanks to our readers we learned a tough lesson.

As adviser of The Eagle's Wing, I want to apologize to anyone we unintentionally upset with the printing of a student's answer to the Question of the Week in the Nov. 16, 2016 issue. This student's answer was not intended to be serious or literal, and this student did not realize the impact his attempt at humor would have on our potential readers. Fortunately, this has been a good learning experience for our student journalists. They now recognize the tremendous impact their words have on people.

The Eagle's Wing staff wants our readers to know that The Keota Eagle is not responsible for the makeup or editorial content expressed in The Eagle's Wing. This is a student written newspaper and we believe it is a valuable learning tool for the students as they grow in their education.

We never meant to offend the wonderful people of this community, nor hurt the reputation of this newspaper. We realize the seriousness and importance of this matter; therefore, The Eagle's Wing staff decided to forego the original page we had prepared for this week's publication in order to issue this apology to our readers.

We believe we do a lot of positive work at The Eagle's Wing by informing the community of all the great things our students and teachers do here at Keota Jr./Sr. High School. We believe we have a lot to be proud of, and I hope our future good work will show our resolve to promote a positive image for our community and our school. Once again, we sincerely apologize.
