This year the KHS Student Council hosted a pumpkin decorating contest. Each Eagle Advisory was given a pumpkin to decorate. Students could carve, paint, or add other details to the pumpkin.

There were 12 pumpkins decorated in total, and the finished pumpkins were displayed in the student lounge on Halloween day. A few staff members were tasked with voting on which pumpkin was the best.

The winner of the contest was Mr. Nederhoff's "Popcorn Movie" themed pumpkin. They will be celebrating their win with a pizza party sponsored by the Student Council. Overall, this was a fun contest that definitely added some Halloween spirit to the student lounge.

Mr. Jacobsen's juniors went all out with their pumpkin, which was based on Day of the Dead.

Sophomores in Mrs. Wolf's Eagle Advisory chose to carve their pumpkin for the contest.

STUDENTS ATTEND NATIONAL FFA CONVENTION

BY FRANKIE JOHNSON

This year's National FFA Convention took place on October 24 - 25 in Indianapolis. A total of six FFA members attended, including Sam Menke, Cooper Sieren, Conner Woltering, Bryce Greiner, Bailey Sieren, and Joe Swanstrom, along with their advisor, Mr. Jamison. The group loaded up the suburban and left after school on Tuesday, Oct. 23. They made the long drive to Indiana and checked in at a hotel in Indianapolis that night.

They started their day off early Wednesday with agriculture tours. After this, they visited a Turtle Orchard and also went on a tour of Veneer. Wednesday afternoon the group arrived at Indianapolis Convention Center and registered to kick off the convention. They ended the night with supper at a downtown restaurant and attending the convention's opening session.

Thursday was the busiest day of the trip. Starting at 8 a.m., the members participated in FFA leadership workshops, and also checked out the Career Show and Agriscience Fair. They squeezed in a quick lunch before attending the second session of convention. After sitting in the long session, the students got the opportunity to eat dinner and get some exercise at the Sky Zone Trampoline Park. After the busy, but fun-filled day, the group went back to the hotel and slept in order to prepare for the last day of National FFA Convention.

On Friday morning, the group was awake early to pack up their things. They attended the last FFA Session at 8 a.m. before departing for Keota. The suburban made it back to Keota at approximately 5 p.m., with a very exhausted group of kids. Though they were tired, the members said they enjoyed the trip and had a fun experience at the 2018 FFA National Convention. When asked about her favorite part of convention, Bailey Sieren replied, "I made lots of memories with new friends from all over the country that I won't ever forget!"

BY TRISTAN SYPHERD

These last couple of weeks Ms. Hobbs and her 7th grade science students have been learning about cells. To help them visually picture all the parts and their role in the cell, Ms. Hobbs had her students partner up and create a cell city using all the parts of a cell.

The project could be made out of anything they could find. The students just recently presented their cell city projects to the rest of the class. When Carson McDonald was asked what his favorite part of the project was he said, "Making my own city."

Overall, the students enjoyed this project and got very creative with their cities this year.
