ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY FRANKIE JOHNSON

This week's Athlete of the Week is sophomore Bailey Sieren. This will be Bailey's second year playing JV/Varsity Basketball. She is a guard, as she is quick on her feet. Bailey is especially excited for home games this season. She is looking forward to repping the team's new home jerseys and having supportive fans cheering them on. Bailey's main goal this season is to avoid unnecessary fouls. Her ultimate achievement would be to go undefeated and make it to state. A quote that Bailey applies to both basketball and everyday life is, "No matter how bad it seems, it could always be worse." What Bailey likes most about basketball is the contact it involves and how intense it can get. When asked if she had any funny moments in this sport, Bailey replied, "Last year at a game I got a little too aggressive and slightly punched a girl in the face, leading to a technical." She said although it was not funny at the time, looking back now and thinking of her coach's face makes her laugh. Bailey also mentioned there are four seniors on the team this year who are all great role models. She will be sad to see them go and is hoping to help make their last season a great one! We wish Bailey the best of luck on her season.

Make sure to come out and support the Keota Eagles girls basketball team at their first home game on Friday, Nov. 16!

ELEMENTARY SPOTLIGHT

BY BERGEN DALTON

This week's Elementary Spotlight is Maya Dalton. Maya first came to Keota Elementary School in Kindergarten and now she is in fourth grade. Maya has two older relatives in the high school. She has an older sister named Trinity and a cousin named Bergen. Maya loves coming to school and even gets upset if she has to leave early for an appointment. She has made many great friends at Keota, but her closest friend is Jayla Redlinger. Maya's favorite subject in school is Language Arts. She is not a fan of math though, and says it is getting more challenging as the years go on. Maya's favorite days of school are the ones when she has P.E. and her favorite P.E. game is "Steal the Bacon."

Overall, Maya loves attending Keota Elementary School and we wish her the best as the years go on!
