ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

By COLTEN CLARAHAN

This week's Athlete of the Week is senior Grant Garman. When asked about what he is looking forward to most this basketball season he said, "playing with a new group of guys and learning strengths and weaknesses."

Grant considers himself a Power Forward or Center. He also is working on expanding his shooting range a little bit as well. At the moment Grant doesn't have a motto that he likes to say or play by. The thing that Grant most likes about basketball is how it is a team sport and there is never ending growth and improvement to the game.

While being in basketball for four years, Grant says that the funniest moments are when he gives AJ grief about his free throws. Grant's ultimate achievement is to have a winning record and to add another Conference Championship to his career.

We wish Grant the best of luck this upcoming basketball season!

WHIP OF THE WEEK

By DREW SIEREN

This week's Whip of the Week is Ashton Thomas's 1996 Jeep Grand Cherokee; it is a 4 liter 6 cylinder manual. Ashton's car has a small 263,000 miles on it. It has a light brown interior and the exterior is black. Ashton's car gets 14 mpg, but he mainly drives in town to get to school. This car was given to Ashton by Travis Greiner a few years back.

Ashton's car has a top speed of 106 miles per hour. The nickname for his car is "Brutis." He has a sunroof and he has a deer guard on his car. Ashton says he can safely fit five people in his car. He has yet to take his car on any road trips, but he hopes to take it on a few soon. Ashton has made a few good memories in this car, his favorite being driving to football practice and hanging out with buddies. He has gotten lucky that he hasn't had any really bad memories in his car yet. The radio presets in his car include 98.1 and 97.5, to name a few.

Now it's time for you to decide if "Brutis" deserves to be Whip of the Week.

COACH OF THE WEEK

By ANTHONY WESTENDORF

This week's Coach of the Week is Mr. Weeks, who coaches SK wrestling. Coach Weeks has been coaching for eight years. What he is most looking forward to this season is taking part in the development of his wrestlers and growing their team. This season Weeks is hoping to improve his wrestlers' ability to wrestle from the bottom position and moving into a scoring position when the opponent has control.

Coach Weeks has two goals for the season. His first goal is to get more athletes to go out for wrestling; last season they had 26 and he is hoping to see 35 wrestlers this year. His second goal is to make it to the top four in the State Dual Tournament. Coach Weeks' motto he tries to live by everyday is "sleep fast, win everything." Head Coach Cory Van Den Hueval had shirts made with that saying on the back of them last year.

Coach Weeks loves competition and when it comes to wrestling Weeks says, "There is not another sport in the state of Iowa with such Pikes Peak highs and Death Valley lows." Anyone interested in the wrestling program is welcome to stop by Mr. Weeks' classroom and ask him for some more information.

7th:

A: "Food because I'm always hungry."

12th:
